Rhythm of the Arts Sugar Skull!

Thursday, September 29 & Friday, September 30 • 11:00am • Kingsbury Hall

SUGAR SKULL! A Dia de Muertos Musical Adventure is a touring bilingual/bicultural musical for young audiences and families that uses traditional regional music and dance from Mexico to tell the story of twelve-year-old Vita Flores. Vita thinks her family has gone loco planning a celebration for deceased loved ones. Why throw a party for the dead? But when a spirited candy skeleton suddenly springs to life, Vita finds herself on a magical, musical journey to unravel the true meaning of Día de Muertos.

University of Utah Youth Theatre Seussical TYA

Thursday, March 9 & Friday, March 10 • 11:00am • Kingsbury Hall

Now one of the most performed shows in America, Seussical TYA is a fantastical, magical, musical extravaganza! Tony-winners, Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty have lovingly brought to life all of our favorite Dr. Seuss characters, including Horton the Elephant, The Cat in the Hat, Gertrude McFuzz, lazy Mayzie and a little boy with a big imagination – Jojo. The colorful characters transport us from the Jungle of Nool to the Circus McGurkus to the invisible world of the Whos.

COLLAGE DANCE

Thursday, March 23 and Friday, March 24 • 11:00am • Marriott Center for Dance

Collage Dance remains at the national forefront of inspiring the growth and diversity of ballet. Collage Dance's founders established the professional dance company in New York City in 2006 in response to the ballet industry's lack of racial diversity on stage. Collage Dance Collective is one of the largest Black-led performing arts organizations in the South and one of a few professional ballet companies in the world with a roster of BIPOC dancers.
